

AHTNA

Environmental Remediation Services
Former Ft. Ord Army Base, CA

U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Sacramento District

Project Description

In support of U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Sacramento District, Ahtna completed a one-year base contract and received six one-year extensions on an environmental services indefinite delivery/indefinite quantity contract. The broad scope of the projects encompasses task orders ranging from organizing and managing the community relations program to designing and executing complex remediation strategies. Representative task orders include:

- Groundwater treatment system upgrade design and construction
- Groundwater treatment system enhancements
- Groundwater treatment system operation and maintenance
- Groundwater treatment system supervisory control and data acquisition upgrades
- Environmental assessment
- Soil gas investigation
- In situ enhanced reductive dechlorination pilot study
- In situ pilot testing
- Hazardous, toxic, and radiological waste/ordinance and explosives program community relations support
- Abandoned structure abatement and demolition
- Stormwater compliance inspection and reporting
- Latrine removal
- Vegetation clearance alternatives study

Groundwater Treatment System Operation and Maintenance, Former Ft. Ord, CA. The GWTPs consist of 38 extraction wells and six injection wells and infiltration galleries.